Mary Atwater Weaver's 25th Biennial Guild Show
For the Love of Fiber

March 7 through April 24, 2019
Utah Cultural Celebration Center, 1355 West 3100 South

Theme: For the Love of Fiber. Artwork for this show can be made in any type of fiber art form—weaving, knitting, spinning, embroidery, basketry, felting, etc.

Artwork should express the artist's love of the fiber arts. This show represents all aspects of contemporary fiber art in Utah. Any Utah fiber artist may enter.

Entry Information. Drop off pieces on March 1, 2019, from noon to 6:00 p.m. at Utah Cultural Celebration Center. An entry fee of $15 (for Guild members) and $20 (for those who are not Guild members) will allow you to enter three pieces. Items completed in the past two years will be eligible for an award. You have the option of listing a selling price or marking the item not for sale. UCCC will deduct a 30 percent commission for all sold items.

Show Opening. The opening reception will be held on Thursday, March 7, from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. Awards will be presented, refreshments will be served, and all attendees can see the show.

Awards. A number of awards will be presented, including awards from Handwoven, Complex Weavers, and the national Surface Design Association. The Mary Atwater Weavers Guild will offer awards in the categories of functional and non-functional textiles, as well as Best of Show and People's Choice.

More Information. Registration forms and further details will be available soon. Please check the Guild's website: mmawg.org.
